JUDGMENT : (Per Sri Bilal Nazki, J)

Nobody appears for the appellant. We have gone through the record of the case and the order impugned.

It appears that the appellant has filed Writ Petition No.14840 of 2002, challenging the order of suspension. By a Miscellaneous Petition in W.P.M.P.No.26329 of 2003, he sought reinstatement. The learned Single Judge dismissed the W.P.M.P. on the ground that prima facie even the maintainability of the Writ Petition was questionable, therefore the reinstatement could not be ordered.

We find that the only relief sought in the Writ Petition is the reinstatement. Obviously the relief could not have been granted at an interlocutory stage by ordering the W.P.M.P. We find no ground to interfere with the order of the learned Single Judge. Writ Appeal is dismissed. No costs.
